------------	------

1. On 5 June 1955, a group of young Hungarian doctors departed for China. The group was made up of 15 doctors who had finished their medical studies in 1953/54, their director, and 32 newly graduated nurses from the Vamos Ilona and the Janos Ferenc nursing schools of Budapest. Two nurses from the State Nurses' School at Budapest also accompanied the group.
2. The doctors have taken with them X-ray and dental-surgery equipment as well as medical supplies for six months as a gift of the Hungarian people for the people of Red China.
3. They have signed up for a three-year tour. They left Debrecen airfield for Feiping where they will be told in which province they will work.
